

Anniversary Party Will Celebrate the Library ✓

In commemoration of the Duxbury Free Library's 10th anniversary at its current location, The Friends of the Duxbury Free Library invite residents to Celebrating the Library, the Bay and Beyond on Saturday, Nov. 3. The gala will be held at the Duxbury Free Library from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. with a coastal theme fare catered by Simply Divine, and a cash bar. Duxbury native Anna Conway and John Hodany, creators of the Duxbury Bay mural featured in the picture book room of the Children's Department, will be signing Youngsters peered through the door to get a glimpse of the Duxbury Bay Mural when it was visiting the office of Attorney Alice M. Vogler on Railroad Avenue. The moving mural fundraiser is part of the 10th anniversary of the library building.

limited edition giclee prints of the mural. Small prints are $125 and larger prints are $200. Duxbury Bay Murals framed by Artica will be raffled during the evening, and Duxbury students will provide music.

All proceeds will benefit the library. Tickets are $45, available at the library and Westwinds Bookshop. Only 200 tickets will be sold.

The library relocated from the Wright Building across campus to its current location in November of 1997.
